ANOTHER SPECIAL MEETING. SHALL THE CITY BE BONDED? STUDENTS TO RECONSIDER RESOLUTIONS. OAKLAND IS AT HER OLD TRICKS. LOMBARDI EXPIRES OF APOPLEXY. MEETING OF THE FIRE COMPANIES.

The Company's Report Is Not as Complete as Required.

Trustees Hold a Long and Interesting Session Last Evening

On account of the absence of necessary information the Board of Trustees was unable to devote full consideration to the water rates last evening, so another special meeting will be held next Tuesday evening. Nevertheless the proceedings were full of interest from beginning to end.

As soon as the meeting came to order, President Richards called Trustee Fraine to the chair.

The first business of the evening was started by the reading of the report of the Alameda Water Company, which has been previously published in the Gazette.

As soon as the report had been made, Trustee LaConte moved that the report does not comply with the State law inasmuch as it is not a complete itemized statement that the Company be required to file a supplementary report. The motion was carried. The same action was taken in regard to the report of the Contra Costa Water Company.

The point was that the company had not filed a statement detailing its business from the time it was organized.

General Wagner who represented the company stated that the law did not require such a statement, but that the company was willing to furnish it. As the law is a little ambiguous, it was decided to rescind the resolution calling for a supplementary statement.

General Wagner then announced his willingness to give the Board any information required.

Trustee Hoff—There is some question concerning your report.

President Richards—We are interested in the supply of water rather than the price. The recent famine has been a serious blow to Berkeley. We do not want a repetition.

President pro tem Fraine—We would like to know what the company is doing to procure more water.

General Wagner—As soon as the litigation in regard to the Sobrante claim is settled which will be within a year, we will have plenty of water for years to come.

Superintendent Wellendorf—We are working night and day to extend our Wildcat Creek tunnel and we are boring wells north of Peralta fork. There are good indications of water in the wells.

Trustee Marston—How long would it take to connect with the mains of the Contra Costa Company?

Supt. Wellendorf—That is hard to tell. The Contra Costa could not supply our Shattuck avenue main, as our pressure is greater than theirs. Then again our profits would be reduced.

Trustee Marston—South Berkeley should be prospected.

President Richards—How about the present supply?

General Wagner—It just equals the demand, and if we don't have rain soon there will be a general famine.

Trustee Hoff—I think there is plenty of water in South Berkeley.

President pro tem Fraine—We have one well that has been flowing for seven years all the year round and lots of springs. One well at Dwight way supplies the Bailey block, a large number of neat by families and a stable containing eight horses.

General Wagner—I will call the attention of the company to South Berkeley.

Trustee Marston—I would like to ask Superintendent Wellendorf if a universal meter system would not effect a great saving of water.

Superintendent Wellendorf—Doubtless.

Trustee Marston—Do you think it would be good policy to put the meters in?

Superintendent Wellendorf—It would entail a heavy expense.

Marston—That is preferable to the city undergoing another water famine.

Superintendent Wellendorf—The meter rates are too low.

Trustee Marston—Alameda pays 30c. and we could do the same.

General Wagner—A meter rate should be graduated.

Trustee Marston—Alameda had the same trouble we have but the adoption of a meter system put it to stop.

Trustee Hoff—General, did you not say some time ago that if there were no waste of water there would be no famine?

General Wagner—I have no authority to speak in regard to the matter.

Trustee Hoff—We will give you a day to think.

Trustee Marston—I am strongly in favor of meters.

General Wagner—The expense is an important consideration. The Company has not any too much money, and while I admit that the meter system is the only just one, we are hampered by lack of means.

Trustee Marston—The cost will be about $15,000 and we can't let that stand in our way.

President pro tem Fraine—We would like to hear from Mr. Sanborn.

Mr. Sanborn—As matters stand the Board is not in a position to fix the rates equally. The Company should furnish a more detailed statement of its general expenditures. There are some extraordinary large items under this head. For instance, previous to this past year the cost of repairing street mains has never exceeded $1000. Last year it was six times that amount. Why is that? Maybe Superintendent Wellendorf can explain.

Superintendent Wellendorf—I will inform the Board on any matter, but I will not give one bit of information to Mr. Sanborn.

Mr. Sanborn—The Board should know to what extent the Water Company is interested in the Sobrante litigation.

General Wagner—Mrs. Haskins is carrying on the suit.

Mr. Sanborn—Are your mains South of Ward street included in the report?

General Wagner—No.

President pro tem Fraine—I think we should hold another special meeting Tuesday evening and have the bookkeeper, books and papers of the company here.

General Wagner—Certainly.

Clark Hanson was instructed to look over the Company's books next Sunday.

The Fire and Water Committee was instructed to ascertain what had better be done in regard to grading the lot on which the Columbia engine house stands.

The meeting then adjourned.

SHALL THE CITY BE BONDED?

Interviews With Citizens Regarding an Important Measure.

Suggestions and Opinions as to the Proposed New Schools.

Following is a list of interviews and opinions which the Gazette is publishing daily in regard to the advisability of bonding the City for $75,000 of which amount $60,000 will be expended for the purchase of a site and the erection of a new high school building, the balance for a site and the construction of a Grammar School at North Berkeley.

J. L. Barker—We are the educational center of all the cities in the State. Berkeley can least afford to be parsimonious in the matter of proper school accommodations. I am in favor of bonding for $75,000 for a new High school building, which should be all means be built. There should be no more wooden school houses erected in Berkeley, both on the score of dumbly and of safety for the children in case of fire.

John O. Hanson—On general business principles I am opposed to discounting the future, therefore do not favor the bonds.

W. E. Owens—If the Board of Education considers the new buildings necessary I suppose we will have to vote the bonds.

George H. Wright—On general principles I am opposed to bonds of all kinds. We should pay as we go. There ought to be some provision made for a regular yearly appropriation of taxes for building purposes; and when there is sufficient money in the fund necessary buildings can be erected.

Trustee Marston—The prosperity of Berkeley is largely due to the University and to the schools. The State looks after the University, and it is our duty to see that the schools are kept at a high standard. I know of a number of cases where little children residing at North Berkeley are compelled to attend the Dwight way school as there are no accommodations for them nearer home. This being the case, it is obvious that we need more schools, and there is no use postponing the matter. As for the site, the Board of Education is perfectly competent to attend to it.

STUDENTS TO RECONSIDER RESOLUTIONS.

Prof. Magee Announces That He Would Not Serve If Appointed.

Mr. Haber Calls Down Instructor Torrey for Yesterday's Statements.

Seldom if ever has the Student Body of the University been so deeply interested in a single subject as they were yesterday over the recent adoption of the resolutions petitioning the President to change certain members of the Athletic Committee. Those desiring these resolutions vigorously uphold their action claiming that they acted for the best interest of athletics and that they are backed by certain Regents. On the other hand the opponents of the resolutions claim that such a change is neither necessary nor justifiable and that a majority of the entire student body would not be in favor of such changes. Therefore notice has been given that the entire matter will be reconsidered Friday morning at 11:15.

The Professors concerned have positively refused to be interviewed and what move the President may make is unknown. Professor Magee wishes to state positively that he would not serve on such a committee if appointed, correcting a statement which appeared in Tuesday's Cathlamet to the contrary.

J. Haber, Jr., the mover of the resolutions which have occasioned so much stir in this morning's Cathlamet, makes reply to Mr. Torrey's communication as follows:

EDITOR DAILY CAZETTE:

In the last issue of your paper appeared a communication from Mr. Harry Beal Torrey in which he discusses the adoption of certain resolutions by the A.S.U.C. on Monday last. It is with extreme displeasure that any student of California should engage in a controversy with Mr. Torrey, a member of the Faculty, who, when a student, did as much as any other man has ever done for the glory and advancement of our University. But Mr. Torrey's communication contains attacks upon the supporters of these resolutions which they cannot with self-respect overlook.

Putting aside these personal attacks for a moment, I wish to discuss Mr. Torrey's peculiar analysis of the purpose of these resolutions. According to Mr. Torrey, "a wretched minority" who were rendered "furious and ungrateful" by defeat in the last football game took the opportunity to "insult" two University Professors. How Mr. Torrey, who was present at the meeting, but unfortunately did not speak to the students, can make such statements after having listened to the supporters of the resolutions, I am unable to see. What part the football game plays in the matter appears to me incomprehensible; personally in proposing and voting for the resolutions, I was not influenced by football defeat but by the Field Day victory of last April. That these resolutions were meant as an insult to two University Professors I most emphatically deny. Such insinuations were made in the meeting and Mr. Torrey must remember that Mr. Joseph Leggett took the opportunity to most positively contradict them. No, if Mr. Torrey remembers, my position as the proposer of these resolutions was as follows: Being aware as Mr. Torrey and all others must be, that there is a widening breach between Student Body and Faculty Committee, which has led to controversies which have been so conspicuous in San Francisco newspapers that alumni ask students such questions as "what's the matter over in Berkeley," certain students proposed resolutions asking the President of the University to give them an opportunity to secure more harmonious relations by placing on the committee three gentlemen known to be both enthusiastic and well-versed in all athletic matters. And in this well-meant (although I will acknowledge, perhaps improper request) Mr. Torrey sees an insult to two Professors for certain private ends of certain students. As far as my private ends are concerned, I wish to say that I have no power in this University, that I never had any, that I never have held or tried for any student office; and that my purpose in this matter was to do what every other student in California should do, register an individual vote.

OAKLAND IS AT HER OLD TRICKS.

An Attempt Will Be Made to Gather in Berkeley.

Alameda, Emeryville, and Other Municipalities Included in the Scheme.

The Merchants' Exchange of Oakland is going to make another effort to effect the consolidation of Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda into one municipality.

At a meeting last evening J. H. W. Schellhaas, president of the Exchange, was in part as follows:

"We, like the large majority of citizens, want a city and county embracing Oakland, Berkeley, Emeryville, Alameda, Fruitvale, Elmhurst and San Leandro, if they want to come in. Should they come in the name could be decided upon later.

"With a city and county like San Francisco we will then be the second city in the State and capital will be attracted to us. Our taxes would be reduced 60 cents on the hundred dollars. We cannot understand why manufacturers do not locate here, and attribute it to the high price of land. The real truth is that our tax rate is too high for a plan that is worth a half million dollars, as were some of those, there was talk of establishing here. If we were the second city of the State it would be a great advertisement for us.

"All the cities could, I believe, be brought to see that it is to their advantage to consolidate. Alameda will realize the truth of the old maxim 'In union there is strength.' Fruitvale would be better off; it would then get its canal. San Leandro would not have to go begging to get a fruit preserving plant located there.

The Oakland Board of Trade has taken the matter up and intends to have a meeting next Monday evening to discuss the matter.

A FOOLISH ARTICLE

No weight should be attached to the wild, weird article published in the official paper (?) last evening regarding the alleged forth-coming attack on the charter. Every once in a while when a citizen runs afoul of a city ordinance and proposes to contest it some one raises the cry that the charter is to be assailed. That is generally all there is to the episode. The grounds for the present alleged attack are not mentioned in the article, doubtless for the excellent reason that there are none, but the writer thereof seems to be laboring under the impression that the constitutionality of our organic law depends for its life on the validity of any ordinance. Of course this is nonsense. Even a section of the charter may be abrogated without affecting the remaining provisions. It may safely be said that Berkeley's present charter is as a whole unassailable. As for the article in question, City Attorney Hayne characterized it correctly and comprehensively with the terse statement, "utter rot."

A PROSPEROUS YEAR

Everything indicates that Berkeley is going to enjoy a prosperous year, and that we are entering on a new era of good times. For instance, the facts that an unprecedented number of new buildings and residences are being erected, or contracted for, and that everyone of these edifices are, or will be, constructed on the most approved plans may be cited. This means in the first place that there is plenty of work for artisans, and in the second place that there will be more business in town.

Then again quite a number of people are leaving for Alaska. If they gain their wishes they will return with the result that a great deal of money will be placed in circulation. Whereas, even if they fail, their absence through temporary means may leave them with a better chance of employment. These are but a few of the many indications of our coming prosperity but they are certainly inspiring.

CAPTAIN RAY'S REPORT

The report made by Captain Ray, the army officer sent up the Yukon to find out the condition of affairs among the gold seekers, is not of such a nature as to encourage further exodus to the gold fields. It is known to be full of inaccuracies, though and will not have the effect of checking immigration to Alaska and the Northwest Territory. The gold is there, and in abundance. Since Captain Ray's report was written, two months ago, many miners have come out with gold in plenty. These same miners report that while food will not be plentiful this winter there will be no starvation.

It appears, therefore, that the gallant Captain's mission has not only been a failure, but has involved the Government in a large expense for a relief expedition for which there apparently is no necessity, even should it be found possible to push through to Dawson City before winter breaks.

DESERVING OF PRAISE

The Board of Trustees is entitled to the heartiest commendation for the eminently fair and businesslike manner in which they have handled the intricate problem of the water supply. While the city fathers are willing to accord a full measure of justice to the Water Company, they insist on the Company furnishing a satisfactory statement of its affairs. The members of the Board may rest assured that the entire community is in accord with them.

THE BEAUTIFUL

Winkled and old are those hands of hers.
Hard and full of the scum
of labor and the years.
Knotted the knuckles.
And crossed and crinkled
the skin on the backs of them.
Dark and hard and huge.
With splinters of brown
between the drawn tendons.
As if gnawed by rats.
Black thick and clammy.
Fetched and with rigid fingers
running the length of them.
Callous the palms.
And lacking all pinkness and prettiness.
Old are those hands of hers.
Winkled and hard.
But oh, what a story of infinite tenderness
And love.
Could they tell,
Those hands of a woman whose throes were years and ten years were passing in the good
First woman do!

THINKING ALOUD.

A Rump Which, Lord Dudley and Formed a Friendship.

One of the earls of Dudley, who was addicted to the practice of thinking aloud, found himself in a very awkward predicament on a certain occasion. He story told of him may be credited. He was to spend the evening at the house of a friend and ordered his carriage sally, as he had a long drive back to his own home.

When the hour arrived, the carriage was not forthcoming. Seeing that Lord Dudley was considerably annoyed by the delay, one of the guests, whose way home lay past his lordship's house, privately offered him a seat in his carriage. The gentleman was almost a stranger to Lord Dudley, but the offer
was accepted.

The drive did not prove a very sociable one. Lord Dudley took his seat and immediately relapsed into silence.
His thoughts apparently engrossed by some unpleasant subject. Presently he began to speak in a low, but distinctly audible tone of voice, and his companion, who was sitting next to him, said:

"I'm very sorry I accepted his offer.
I don't know the man. It was civil certainly, but the worst is I suppose I must ask him to dinner."

Silence followed this bit of audible thinking. His lordship was unaware that he had betrayed his thoughts and was probably still meditating upon the same unpleasant subject when the voice of his companion broke the stillness.

Apparently this stranger was afflicted with the same malady from which his lordship suffered, for he exactly imitated
Lord Dudley's tone as he said:

"Perhaps he'll think I did it to make his acquaintance. Why, I would have done the same to any farmer on his estate. I hope he won't ask me to dinner, for I shall not accept his invitation."

Lord Dudley's abstraction was all gone. He listened to the other's words, immediately comprehending the joking
nature of his remark, and frankly offered himself to his companion, making manly apologies for his involuntary rudeness.

The stranger proved magnanimous,
and from that night the two became fast friends. — Youth's Companion.

English Jacobite Societies.

The judge from the list of Jacobite clubs and associations given in the Legitimist Calendar for 1895, which includes the order of the White Roges,
the Devon White Roges club, the Legiti-mist Jacobite League of Great Britain and Ireland (proudly titled, the Easton Counties' (shade of Cromwell), White Cockade club, the Forty-five club
of Grimsby, the Glasgow Jacobite club,
the Oxford University Legitimist club,
the St. Ives (Hunts) Jacobite club, the Jacobite Restoration league, the Surrey
White Roges League, the Mary Stuart club of Larnark, the Legitimist Registration union, the National Royalist and Jacobite association, the order of St. Germain and the Hamlynford Gray
Royal club, and to mention our old familiar Thames Valley Jacobites and two or three foreign legitimist bodies,
it ought not to be difficult for the supporters of the lost house of Stuart to put several hundred adherents in the field (or even League circles) if they so decide. — London Mail.

Bismarck of Jewish Descent.

Few people are aware that Prince Bismarck is of Hebrew descent. He derives his Jewish blood from his mother, whose father, Ananias Monken, one of the favorite bureaucrats of Frederick the Great, was of Hebrew parentage.
Although of late it has evidently appeared politic to the prince to counterbalance the anti-Semitic movement both in Germany and Austria, yet while in office he invariably showed himself a good friend to the Jewish nation and chose the Hebrew banker at Berlin, Baron von Bleichroeder, as his most trusted confidant. Indeed, in those days he was so well disposed toward the Jews that he even discussed the advantage of marrying his sons to Jewesses on the ground that it would bring in money into the family again and likewise
"improve both morally and physically the Bismarck breed." — International Review.

Drinking Clothes.

The drying of clothes in frosty weather is sometimes in the hands of delicate fabrics, attended with fearing because of the quick stiffening in the very old air. A simple precaution which will prevent any such trouble is to dissolve three or four handfuls of coarse salt in the last running water,

thus making it, in fact, a weak brine.
Articles so rinsed will not suffer from or stiffen with the cold.

A GEORGIA HEN COOP.

It Was Sure Proof Against the Inroads of Outsiders.

"There isn't a more faithful being on earth," said a Georgia business man to a reporter, "than one of our Georgia darkies. Neither is there one more superstitious; nor yet again is there one who loves better the products of the hen coop. And Cartersville isn't any different from any one of a hundred southern towns. When I was down there some time ago, a customer of mine who had a fancy for chickens and who had always had more or less trouble in maintaining ownership of them told me
he had a remedy and asked me to go around with him and see it. I wanted him to tell me what it was, but he insisted on my seeing it first, so I went along with him, and in a few minutes
was standing in his back yard before
what was to me the oddest chicken coop I ever saw. It was constructed of large timbers and there were a dozen places in its walls where a hand could be run in and everything cleaned out within reach. Then there was no fastening on the door, nor was there any kind of protection to the fowls. I couldn't understand how such an inviting snare could be of any use to the owner and said as much.

"The charm is in the timber," said

he.

"No," said I.

"That's just the same," said he. "You don't see it on the outside and you don't know it, but the darkies around here

do, and they won't come within 100 yards of that coop if they can help it.

I don't care how full of chickens it is.

"Can't you see it is built of the timbers

of a gallows on which a man was hung

about three months ago in another community. It cost me something extra to get it, but it has more than paid for itself
since I have had it, and I am in the market now to buy all the secondhand scaffolds in Georgia. If you run across a sheriff any place with one for sale, let me know by next mail, won't you."

It was a true bill, concluded the traveling man, "for I saw a darky

tried on it, and he refused a big silver dollar to go down to the coop to get a chicken for breakfast." — Washington

TEAS AND TEAS.

Things Once Used or Now Used as Substitutes For the Chinese Herb.

Of course every one knows that we drink a good deal that isn't tea when we drink a cup of tea. We drink—or are supposed to drink—some tea, some lead and some straw. But there are several "teas" that the drinkers know are not made of tea leaves and yet are not adulterated.

In Peru they drink mate, a tea made from the McC. paraguensis, a species of holly. This is the only mate tea, but there is a Brazilian tea, gorgolha, called mate there, another tea used in Australia, called Boonah tea, and several other so-called mate teas are made from different varieties of the holly. In Labrador they make a tea from two species of ledum. Owing to tea was made from the scented mountain and mountain tea

from the swamp evergreen, Gaultheria

proemiums. Then clover tea and tansy tea and catnip tea and mint tea are used, though not as beverages.

In Sumatra they use coffee leaves to make tea out of, and the beverage is said to be very refreshing. In Mauritius

the leaves of an orchid, Angrococcus

fragrans, are used. The Tonguese have teas of their own, made of leaves, berries, barks and woods. The Abyssinians make tea out of the leaves of the Catha edulis. Where a sentinel can't leave his post to get a cup of tea, he can chew a leaf or two of this plant,

and he won't feel like going to sleep

all night. In Tasmania there are said to be more than 200 substitutes for tea

in England, they used to make a tea of sage, betony or rosemary and of raspberry leaves; in France they use black

currant leaves and borage to make tea,

and a century or so ago they gathered in English gardens and fields ash, elder and sloe leaves and the leaves of quince

thorn and blackthorn, out of which to make tea. So it is evident that there are teas and teas. — New York Sun.

Autumn's Flight Is Short.

A question that has often been asked

is, How long does flight last in a wild-creature? The close observer will be surprised at its brief duration. They are not subject to "migratory" like human beings. A partridge after running (or rather flying) the gamut of half a dozen grounds—if we may be allowed a mixed metaphor—drops on the other side of a hedge and begins again to peck as if nothing had happened. You would think a rabbit after hearing a charge of shot whistling about its haunches and just managing to escape from a yelping spaniel would keep indoors for a week, but out it pops quite merrily as soon as the coast is clear. A fox pursued by hounds has been known to halt

and kill a fowl in its flight, though we may assume that his enemies were not close to Reynard at the time. We have been led into thinking about the matter

by noting what took place at a cover

after being shot over. — Pall Mall Gazette.

"What do you mean?"

SEMI-CENTENNIAL

THE MINING FAIR

AT
MECHANICS' PAVILION

Saturday, January 29 to Saturday, March 6, 1898

OPEN FROM 2 TO 10:30 P. M.

The 50th anniversary of the discovery of gold in California will be not only fittingly celebrated by its Golden Jubilee, but by one of the grandest and most complete exhibitions of mining and outfitting ever seen in the world. This Fair will possess the merits of originality, instructive and practical features.

There will be a mammoth pictorial and genuine representation of a hydraulic mine in operation; every modern piece of machinery used in all forms of mining in operation; complete display of ores, minerals, and soil formations, and many novel mining experimental features shown for the first time at this Mining Fair.

The natural resources of California will be shown in the big exhibit of the State Board of Trade, and many official and private collections and exhibits of ores and minerals will give added interest to this wonderful Exposition.

The history of our State will be fittingly and graphically outlined by exhibits of relics, curios, photographs, paintings, books, papers, etc., all kindly loaned by societies and individuals. This feature of the Fair is worth special attention, and the management solicits other loans, where possible. The exhibit of the State Mining Board will also prove interesting.

The Klondike Outfitting Department possesses interest beyond the ordinary, for the majority of food products, evaporated fruits, vegetables, and the clothing, cooking utensils, means of transportation, etc., of miners' outfits as shown, are of California, and the money expended therefore remain not alone among our manufacturers and artisans, but aid and benefit the farmer and fruit grower.

One half of the main floor is given over to this department. The attractions besides those named are splendid band concerts, both afternoons and evenings, Klondike cooking lectures, free exhibition daily of Edison's Projectoscope, and new animated pictures illustrating Pacific Coast scenes, European views, Eastern moving pictures, Klondike scenes, conical views, with lectures; a Klondike wedding, Cornish miners' wrestling matches, rock drill contests, international cake walks, baby shows, opening fire reception, living pictures, trips through the great underground tunnel, shaft and ore chambers, nationality days, school children's programs, State Press Association day, interior excursion days, in fact the special features and attractions will be new, novel, well carried out, and on a magnificent scale throughout.

The admission has been wisely fixed at the reasonable price of 25 cents; children, 15 cents; and the railways will make special excursion rates. These can be obtained by applying to your station agent. The various counties will make creditable exhibits, and every man, woman, and child in California has an interest in making this Mining Fair a success. The hotels in San Francisco will make especially low Fair rates, and these can be obtained by writing to the Hotel Committee, 21 Post street, also a list of hotels and boarding houses.

Don't forget the dates—Jan. 24th to 28th for Golden Jubilee Celebration and Jan. 29th to March 6th for Mining Fair.

Office, 31 POST STREET, San Francisco.

A Sunrise Prayer Meeting.

Klondikers.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the West Berkeley Presbyterian Church celebrated the seventeenth anniversary of the Society this morning by a sunrise prayer meeting at the residence of Rev. Mr. Robinson, pastor of the church. At the conclusion of the meeting the members took breakfast with the pastor and his wife.

Cast of the University Grounds.

Secretary Davis of the Regents this morning received a plaster cast of the University grounds from Instructor Maybeck, who is in Europe in the interest of the new architectural plan.

Among the Lorinites who will shortly leave for the Klondike are Messrs. Gumpmann, Menzinger and Rount. Others who will go are Jacob Happersberger of South Berkeley and Fred Munday and John Higgins of West Berkeley.

Taken to Napa.

Charles Woodley of West Berkeley was taken to Napa by Nat Kerns this morning. The unfortunate young man has been in an asylum before.

Col. John O. Hanson has returned from a two weeks' visit at Vallejo.
